UNDER SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION.
National Zoological Park: Organization, improvement, and maintenance—
For repairs to the Holt mansion to make the same suitable for occupancy, and for office furniture: To pay Devereux & Gaghan, plumbing and gas fitting. To pay Julius Lansburgh, chairs..... To pay Barber & Ross, grates..... To pay George Breitbarth, chairs..... To pay A. Eberly's Sons, stoves .....	Apr. 30, 1890	26	71	1	{      }	$320.47 14.00 46.00 25.75 20.35	426.57
NOTE.—This is to cover bills for fitting up the office of the National Zoological Park. It was supposed when they were incurred that they could be paid from the item for "miscellaneous expenses" in the act of April 30, 1890, but the Comptroller of the Treasury decided that this could not be allowed. The articles were furnished in good faith, have been in actual use by the Government for several years, and it is apparent injustice to defer payment for them. An appropriation has been asked annually for several years past.

Mar. 2, 1895	28	949	1	-----	700.00
NOTE.—Prior to the fiscal year 1895 the appropriations for "burial of indigent soldiers" had been deemed indefinite appropriations, good until used, and the new appropriations made from time to time were available for payment of accounts without regard to date of death of soldier or date of presentation of claim. The appropriation of $3,000, made by act of August 18, 1894, was, however, designated by the Treasury an annual appropriation, which could be used only in payment for services rendered within the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895. The amount now called for is required in settlement of accounts accrued prior to July 1, 1894, and which may not legally be paid from the balance of the appropriation for "1895" still in Treasury.

Payment to Bernard Keegan, United States deputy surveyor, Minnesota— For payment to Bernard Keegan, United States deputy surveyor, for resurveys of public lands executed by him in Minnesota during the fiscal year of 1895, under special instructions accompanying contract No. 51, dated December 19, 1894, and approved by the Commissioner of the General Land Office under date of January 3, 1895, necessary to complete the surveys under said contract, the sum of $107.13, as per account rendered, or so much thereof as may be found due in the settlement of the account by the Auditor for the Interior Department, in accordance with the rates authorized by Congress for surveying the public lands for the fiscal year of 1895.....	Submitted ...					107.13
NOTE.—Subsequent to the issue of the instructions under which said resurveys were made, the Comptroller of the Treasury decided that the act making appropriation for the survey of public lands for the fiscal year of 1895, to which said resurveys were made chargeable by this office, having failed to provide for the payment of resurveys or retracements, said appropriation was not available for the payment of said work. As there are no other funds for the year of 1895 available for payment of said resurveys, I respectfully recommend the passage of a special appropriation of the amount submitted herein in order that the deputy surveyor may be compensated for his work, the same having been ordered by this office as necessary to complete the surveys under said contract.

APPENDIX A.

In relation to certain estimates submitted by the Secretary of State. (See pages 2 and 3.)

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, Washington, March 21, 1896.

SIR: I have the honor to submit herewith several items for inclusion in the estimates for deficiencies.

The item for "Contingent expenses, United States consulates, 1892," is to pay a small bill for advertising, incurred in 1891 and 1892, which was not presented for payment until August, 1895. (See p. 3.)

The amounts for contingent expenses of this Department and stationery and furniture for the Department for the present fiscal year are necessary, as shown by the accompanying detailed statements, setting forth the amounts already expended from these two appropriations, and the amounts needed during the remainder of the fiscal year. (See p. 2.)

The item for printing and binding is necessary because the allotment for this Department, which has been the same for a number of years, has always proven insufficient; furthermore, the requirements of the new printing act have necessitated an increased demand on this fund. (See p. 2.)

The printed report of the Pan-American Medical Congress was paid for out of the general printing fund. These reports are now ready for distribution, and this item is to permit the balance of the appropriation for the entertainment of the congress to be used for this purpose, the wording of the original appropriation being held not to cover this necessary expense. (See p. 3.)

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,

RICHARD OLNEY.

Hon. JOHN G. CARLISLE,
Secretary of the Treasury.

APPENDIX B.

In relation to the estimates for "Expenses of national currency" and "Distinctive paper for United States securities." (See page 3.)

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,
Washington, D. C., March 20, 1896.

SIR: I have the honor to invite your attention to the deficiency which has existed for some years in the appropriations for the purchase of distinctive paper for United States securities and national currency. This deficiency has been made up from time to time by borrowing paper purchased under the appropriation "Expenses of Treasury notes," act July 14, 1890, until at the present time there is owing to this appropriation from the appropriation "Distinctive paper for United States securities" 6,300,000 sheets, and from the appropriation "Expenses of national currency" 1,500,000 sheets, the total amount so due being 7,800,000 sheets. I respectfully recommend that the estimates now being prepared for the general deficiency bill to be presented to Congress include an estimate for sufficient paper to return the amounts borrowed from the Treasury note appropriation, as follows:

Distinctive paper for United States securities.....	sheets...	6,300,000
Mill and other necessary expenses.....		$36,231.30
Expenses of national currency.....	sheets...	1,500,000
Express and other expenses.....		$8,280.00

Very respectfully,

The SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

A. T. HUNTINGTON,
Chief Division Loans and Currency.

APPENDIX C.

In relation to the estimate for "Supplies for native inhabitants, Alaska." (See page 4.)

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,
Washington, D. C., March 9, 1896.

SIR: Since 1893 an annual appropriation of $19,500 has been made by Congress for the support of the native inhabitants on the seal islands of St. George and St. Paul, Alaska. This action was made necessary by reason of the reduction, under the modus vivendi, in the number of seals killed on said islands, from which pursuit the natives had been able previously to support themselves. The appropriation for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1895, contained a provision that from the amount of $19,500 appropriated for said year, $3,325 should be paid to the bishop of the Greek Church of Alaska, as reimbursement for a similar amount collected from the natives as gratuities to their church, but which was redistributed to them by order of the resident Government agent. This reimbursement reduced the amount available for the maintenance of the natives to $16,175, which was insufficient for the purpose. A deficiency of $2,017.67 in the appropriation for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1895, is the result, and I have the honor to suggest that this amount be included in the estimates to supply deficiencies.

Respectfully, yours,

Hon. JOHN G. CARLISLE,
Secretary of the Treasury.

J. J. CROWLEY, Supervising Special Agent.

APPENDIX D.

In explanation of the item "Credit in the accounts of Thomas J. Hobbs, disbursing clerk, Treasury Department." (See page 4.)

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF AUDITOR FOR THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, D. C., January 16, 1896.

SIR: I have the honor to state that under the act of July 14, 1890 (26 Stat. L., chap. 708, sec. 1, p. 289), there were appointed by the Honorable Secretary of the Treasury a number of persons in the Division of Loans and Currency who were designated as "additional employees." These persons were regularly paid their salaries by Thomas J. Hobbs, disbursing officer of the Treasury Department, from the appropriation "Expenses of Treasury notes, act July 14, 1890."

Mr. Hobbs, the disbursing officer, was regularly allowed these payments in the settlement of his accounts up to March 27, 1895, when the Auditor for the Treasury Department gave his construction of the statute of July 14, 1890, holding that "the employment at the seat of Government of persons designated as 'additional employees,' whose compensation is to be paid from the appropriation contained in section 1 of the act of July 14, 1890, is prohibited by section 4 of the act of August 5, 1882 (22 Stat. L., 255), and payment of compensation to such persons from said appropriation can not be allowed."

This being a decision making an original construction of section 1 of the act of July 14, 1890, the same was reported to the Comptroller of the Treasury for his action, and on March 30, 1895, the Comptroller rendered his decision, affirming the action of the Auditor.

In consequence of this decision there has been disallowed in the settlement of the accounts of Thomas J. Hobbs, disbursing officer for the Treasury Department, the sum of $9,967.83. Mr. Hobbs paid out this sum in good faith to those who held regular appointments from the Honorable Secretary of the Treasury.

In view of the facts herein stated, I respectfully suggest that the Congress be asked to authorize the proper accounting officers of the Treasury Department to credit Thomas J. Hobbs, the disbursing officer of the Treasury Department, in the sum of $9,967.83.

Respectfully, yours,

The SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

R. M. COUSAR, Acting Auditor.

APPENDIX E.

In explanation of the estimate for "Salaries and expenses of agents and subordinate officers of internal revenue." (See page 5.)

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE,
Washington, D. C., February 29, 1896.

SIR: I have the honor to submit for your consideration the case of a number of internal-revenue storekeepers and gaugers, who had been detailed by the collectors to perform the separate duties of gaugers of fruit brandy before they had executed the bond required by section 64 of the act of August 28, 1894, which was necessary to qualify them to perform the work to which they were assigned. These men were already under bond as storekeepers and gaugers, but the collectors failed to notice that another and new bond was necessary before they could legally perform the separate duties of a gauger. The consequence was that when their accounts were presented to this office that part of them which related to their compensation and expenses before the dates of their new bonds was disallowed.

Since then these accounts have been examined to ascertain precisely the amounts in each case which were disallowed for the cause referred to, a detailed list of which accompanies this communication.

In this schedule are included four accounts of Gauger E. L. Ross, of the first district of California, who had given a bond before he was assigned to duty, but which bond was lost in the mail when it was transmitted to this office, and through some oversight in the collector's office, it was not discovered that the gauger's bond had not been received and approved by the Commissioner until he had been on duty three months and a part of another.

The other case is that of Gauger Paul E. Flammer, of the first district of California, who resigned his office on the 30th of March, 1895, but was assigned to duty in September by the collector, before he had been reinstated by this office.

In view of the fact that in no one of the cases here presented was it the fault of the gaugers or storekeepers and gaugers that they were assigned to duty before they were legally qualified, and that their work has been accepted by the Government, it is the judgment of this office that these officers have an equitable claim for compensation for their services.

If, therefore, your judgment should coincide with that of this office, it is suggested that an application be made to Congress for authority to pay these accounts, which can be done out of the appropriations for the salaries and expenses of agents and subordinate officers of internal revenue for the fiscal years 1895 and 1896, of which there are sufficient amounts for this purpose remaining unexpended.

Very respectfully,

The SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

G. M. WILSON, Acting Commissioner.

APPENDIX F.

In explanation of the estimate for "Expenses of Revenue-Cutter Service." (See page 5.)

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,
Washington, D. C., March 21, 1896.

SIR: Referring to Department letter of the 12th instant, I have respectfully to transmit herewith an estimate in the sum of $15,000 as an item of deficiency in the expenses of the Revenue-Cutter Service for the current fiscal year.

Owing to the extended cruises of the vessels on the Pacific coast and to the fact that they are all old vessels, extensive repairs upon each was rendered indispensable to fit them for the work in the North Pacific and Bering Sea for the season of 1896. In order that these vessels might be got ready for service as indicated the work had to be commenced and pushed to completion without delay. The work, which is largely extra of what the ordinary running expenses of these vessels would be, must be paid from the sum appropriated for the maintenance of the Service for the current year, and amounts in the aggregate to a cost of $28,047, as follows:

Repairs on the Bear .....	$5,100
Repairs on the Corwin .....	2,041
Repairs on the Grant .....	6,999
Repairs on the Perry .....	9,070
Repairs on the Rush .....	3,837
Repairs on the Wolcott .....	1,000

From the expenditures already made and the known requirements of the Service for the remainder of the current fiscal year, it is estimated that the expenses therefor for the present fiscal year will be between $980,000 and $990,000.

The estimates for the service for 1896, submitted in October, 1894, called for the sum of $980,000, but Congress saw fit to appropriate but $935,000—$45,000 less than the amount asked for.

When the estimates for 1896 were prepared the act providing for placing certain officers of the Service on "permanent waiting orders," approved March 2, 1895, had not become a law, and the amount necessary for the compensation of this additional class was therefore not included in those estimates.

In the urgent deficiency bill approved February 26, 1896, the sum of $35,850 was appropriated for this purpose.

I respectfully recommend that the amount estimated for be included in the general deficiency bill for the present fiscal year.

Respectfully, yours,

C. F. SHOEMAKER,
Captain, Revenue-Cutter Service, Chief of Division.

CHIEF OF THE DIVISION OF BOOKKEEPING AND WARRANTS,
Treasury Department.

APPENDIX G.

In explanation of the item for credit in the accounts of Pay Director H. M. Denniston, U. S. N. (See page 16.)

NAVY DEPARTMENT, Washington, March 17, 1896.

SIR: Referring to the Department's letter of this date, transmitting estimates for deficiencies in appropriations, I have the honor to request that you will, in connection therewith, forward to Congress the following additional item:

"Accounts of Pay Director H. M. Denniston.

"The accounting officers of the Treasury are hereby authorized and directed to pass the following voucher, under the appropriation 'Pay, miscellaneous, 1895,' from which it was paid by Pay Director H. M. Denniston, United States Navy, viz: For services of Pinkerton's National Detective Agency, $845.64."

The circumstances under which this expenditure was incurred were as follows: Under date of July 9, 1894, the Department addressed a communication to the United States district attorney, Philadelphia, Pa., authorizing him "to employ a detective for the purpose of securing evidence" in a matter deemed to be of great importance to the public service. The Department did not give explicit instructions respecting the employment of any particular detective agency in the matter, simply stating its preference that the district attorney should secure the services of a man in whom he had confidence, and requesting him to send the bill for such services to the Department. In pursuance of this authority the district attorney engaged the services of Pinkerton's National Detective Agency, and the bill of that agency for such services, amounting to $845.64, was approved in due course and paid by Pay Director Denniston.

The amount was subsequently checked against his accounts by the accounting officers, being in violation of a clause contained in the act making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the Government, approved March 3, 1893 (27 Stat. L., p. 591). The employment of this particular agency was an inadvertence for which this Department was not in the first instance responsible, and the fact that the expenditure was prohibited by statutory provision was not discovered until after the bills were paid. It is deemed proper, therefore, that the item above mentioned should be included in the pending deficiency bill in order that Pay-Director Denniston may be relieved from the charge.

Very respectfully,

W. McADOO, Acting Secretary.

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

APPENDIX H.

In relation to the estimate for "printing and binding, Department of the Interior." (See page 16.)

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, March 3, 1896.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith an estimate of appropriation of $50,000, being amount required to meet a deficiency in the appropriation for "printing and binding" for this Department for the current fiscal year.

The favorable action of Congress is respectfully asked.

Very respectfully,

HOKE SMITH, Secretary.

The SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

A.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, February 29, 1896.

SIR: I have considered with some care the matter of a deficiency in the appropriation for printing and binding during the present fiscal year. It is estimated by the stationery division that it will take a deficiency appropriation of at least $50,000 to complete the necessary work for the present fiscal year.

I note at the outset that there has been usually a deficiency in this appropriation. During the last fiscal year there was no deficiency appropriation asked for, for the reason that Congress was not in session at the time when the necessity for it became apparent. A considerable amount of work, therefore, was necessarily suspended during the last fiscal year and brought forward and paid for out of the appropriation for the present fiscal year. The amount thus taken from the appropriation for the present fiscal year is estimated by the stationery division to be $11,000. There was a deficiency in the appropriation for printing and binding during the fiscal year before the last of $20,000, and during the year before that there was a similar deficiency of $75,000. It thus appears that the appropriations for printing and binding are usually insufficient.

In explanation of the fact that during the first six months of the present fiscal year, as compared with the first six months of the previous year, there was an increase of expenses in the matter of printing and binding in the Secretary's office of about $4,000, the report made to me by the stationery division shows that the increase is owing to the fact that during the first six months of the present fiscal year there have been printed three annual reports of the Bureau of Education for the years 1892-93, 1893-94, and 1894-95, and two annual reports of the Geological Survey for the years 1893-94 and 1894-95, at an aggregate cost of about $4,500. Reports of the Bureaus mentioned were not printed during the last fiscal year. The increase is thus satisfactorily explained.

I notice, by reference to the report of the stationery division, that during the first six months of the present fiscal year, as compared with the first six months of the previous fiscal year, in the matter of specifications for patents there has been an increase in expenditure of between $14,000 and $15,000. In order to secure an explanation of this increase, as far as possible, I addressed a letter to the Commissioner of Patents, calling his attention to the matter and asking that he submit an explanation. In response to this letter the Commissioner transmits a report from the chief of the issue and Gazette division. The report points out that in the fiscal year 1893-94 the printing of patents and reissues cost $3.72 per solid page; that in the fiscal year 1894-95 the price had risen to $3.83 per solid page, and that during the first six months of the present fiscal year the price had risen to $4.03 per solid page, thus showing an annually progressive increase in the price of printing. It is claimed by the Printing Office, however, in justification of this, that the specifications are longer than formerly. This is admitted to be true by the chief of the issue and Gazette division to some extent, but not sufficient to justify the increased cost of printing; and in support of his contention he submits a tabular statement.

For the purpose of this paper, however, it is not necessary to determine who is correct in this matter, for either theory explains the increase of cost of printing in the matter of specifications for patents.

I have ascertained upon further inquiry that there has been an increase in the printing for the Civil Service Commission of about $3,000 during the first six months of the present fiscal year, as compared with the similar period of the last fiscal year. This is attributable to the fact, so the Civil Service Commission claim, that there has been an increase in the classified service by including a great number of persons.

The report of the stationery division shows further that in the item of tablets there has been an increase in cost of about $1,000 during the first six months of the present fiscal year as compared with the similar period of the last fiscal year. This is explained by the fact that during the last fiscal year we received quite a number of tablets from the Census Office for which we did not have to pay out of the appropriation.

The explanations hereinbefore named of the increase in expenditure for the first six months of the present fiscal year, when considered together with the fact that it has been true for a number of years that the appropriation for printing and binding has never been sufficient, appear to me to give a satisfactory reason why the deficiency asked for seems large.

Very respectfully,

E. WOMACK, Chief Clerk.

The SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

APPENDIX I.

In explanation of estimates for the postal service for 1896. (See page 19.)

POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE POSTMASTER-GENERAL,
Washington, D. C., March 6, 1896.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith certain estimates of deficiency appropriations required for the postal service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1896, as follows, to-wit:

For inland transportation by railroad routes.....	$1,138,000
For balance due foreign countries.....	80,000

In relation to these estimates I have the honor to submit the following:

Inland transportation by railroad routes.

Expenditure under orders issued to February 29, 1896.....	$27,609,210.98
Unadjusted service, 472.10 miles, calculated at $60 per mile per annum.....	19,010.84
New service to be put on prior to June 30, 1896, estimated at 500 miles, from average period of two months.....	10,000.00
Amount of appropriation.....	27,638,221.82
Deficiency.....	1,138,221.82

In explanation of this deficiency, attention is invited to the fact that the appropriation for this purpose was $1,000,000 less than the estimate, and that the increase in cost of service in the States of Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, and Missouri, on account of increase in weights, as shown by the quadrennial readjustment pending at the time, in excess of the original estimate, was $284,267.79.

Balances due foreign countries, estimated deficiency, $80,000.

The estimate is based on figures furnished by the Auditor for the Post-Office Department, and is attributable in part to the circumstance that when the estimates for the current fiscal year were submitted the results of the statistical period of November, 1893, were not known, so that the operations of the statistical period of May, 1890, were the only available data upon which to base the estimates, and in part to the natural increase in the volume of the mails handled.

Very respectfully,

WM. L. WILSON, Postmaster-General.

The SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.
